

THE WEEK AHEAD: 5 things to do on Outer/Lower Cape

1. Renowned Cape Cod artist Rick Fleury talks about Wellfleet's "hidden treasures" at Wellfleet Public Library Monday, July 21, 7:30 p.m., part of Capturing Wellfleet, a two-week art series featuring demonstrations, lectures and exhibits. Info: addisonart.com
2. At Tool Discovery Day at Eastham Historical Society's Swift-Dailey House Museum, Route 6, Eastham. Sunday, July 20, from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m., bring samples of old tools for a "whatzit" session and for trading. A blacksmithing demonstration takes place at the museum's Chester Ranlett Tool Museum.
3. Lunchbox Auction preview Sarah Swain and the Oh Boys perform at Truro Vineyards, 11 Shore Rd., North Truro, Monday, July 21, from 6 to 8 pm., a preview of the Outside the Box Lunchbox Auction to benefit Cape Cod Children's Place in August. View lunchboxes painted by local artists, enjoy food from Blackfish, and receive a free glass of wine in a keepsake glass. Tickets $30, available in advance at Cape Cod Children's Place, or at Truro Vineyards the day of the event. Info: 508-240-3310, www.capecodchildrensplace.com/events
4. Bird Watching for Beginners Learn the basics with Gretchen Moran Towers Thursday, July 24, 10 a.m., Cape Cod Museum of Natural History, 869 Route 6A, Brewster, free with museum admission. Info: ccmnh.org
5. Meet the Harwich Mariners at EPOCH Senior Healthcare of Harwich when it hosts a cookout in honor of the team Wednesday, July 23, at noon. It's located at 111 Headwaters Dr., Harwich. Chat with the players and enjoy a BBQ. Reservations: 508-430-6208.